| 6  | Items          | Planning                                                   | Salesbury View development: the Council resolved to grant £100 under Section 137 to Wilpshire Against Persimmon Residents Group as a contribution toward the cost of a professional technical planning report, to benefit the parish by identifying material planning considerations. The final appeal balance and invoice for the commissioned reports will be supplied. |
| 7  |                | Highways                                                   | Dragon markings and signage not yet installed. KB has chased.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 8  |                | Public rights of way                                       | The farmer has agreed to fence all the way up the path as cattle are escaping. No funds available to fix the wall and this is considered pointless until the cows are secure.                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 9  |                | Outstanding repairs                                        | Chevron sign repair is in hand.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10 |                | Lengthsman duties                                          | Normal strimming duties have started.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
